

LIGHT PANEL 2.0

Ledon propose the only meth-acrylate panel Led back enlightened that guarantees uniformity of light on all the surface thanks to the particular composition of material.

Light Panel 2.0 is the ideal solution for all professionals of interior design: architects, interior decorator, furniture makers, scenographer, ect. Who have need to find innovative materials hard emotional impact and great aesthetic yield thus exceeding the old mediocre neon light box.

CHARACTERISTIC

- Uniformity of light on all the surface(maximum variability from 10% from the edge) thanks to the disk effect of studied material
- Possibility of various configurations with hot white light, natural white, cold white or RGB;
- Light intensity that can be modulated
- Possibility to recall configurations of tonality of adopted light
- Possibility to command the panel through remote control, integrated domotica
- Available with light emission mono and double-face
- Reduction of encumbrance respect to traditional solution (only 2 cm thick)
- Possibility of proceeds in desks, lowering, walls or suspension through metallic cables
- "Custom" realization till to 3mt x 2mt
- Personalization of frames with colors to choice
- Personalization of panel with films, wood covers and others;
- Energetic saving
- Respect the norms Selv
- Feeding to 24V.